Hanan Hazime is a Lebanese-Canadian Shia Muslimah poet, story teller and writer living in Toronto. She is the current Writer in Residence and Literary Arts Instructor at Workman Arts. In 2017, Hanan conducted Poetry ReRooted, a series of workshops aimed at young Muslim women (Muslimahs) that took place at Nook's Community Room (Beaches-East York). The workshops gave participants a chance to explore their roots and express themselves by using both their mother tongues and English to create poetry. By offering creative workshops to Muslimahs, Hanan is helping to incorporate the stories and experiences of Arab Muslim women into the Canadian narrative, while celebrating bilingual or polylingual writing and literature.

Toronto Arts Council (TAC) is the City of Toronto's funding body for artists and arts organizations. Since 1974, TAC has played a major role in the city's cultural industries by supporting a very broad range of artistic activity. TAC grants lead to exhibitions, performances, readings and workshops seen annually by over 9.5 million people throughout the City of Toronto and beyond. Through its ongoing funding, TAC cultivates a rich engagement between artists and audiences.

OUR MISSION

Supporting artists and arts organizations with responsive and innovative granting programs.

OUR VISION: CREATIVE CITY, BLOCK BY BLOCK.

Working towards a vibrant and creative city where every neighbourhood is enriched by the transformative benefits of the arts.

In 2017, TAC:

- ▶ Distributed over $18 million in grants
- ▶ Supported 537 arts organizations and collectives and 492 professional artists
- ▶ Funded approximately 30 activities in ward 19, Beaches—East York

With an application success rate of 43%, TAC funds only a fraction of the artistic activity happening in the city. With more funds, we can invest more in the organizations and artists who are helping to build our vibrant, creative city.

The arts are not only important to Toronto artists, but they are important to Toronto residents. Toronto Arts Foundation's Arts Stats 2018 revealed that nearly 90% of Torontonians believe that the arts make Toronto a better place to live, and more than 75% of them would like to see more opportunities to attend the arts in every Toronto ward.

We are happy to talk to you further about the impact of the arts on the city, its value for Toronto residents and what Toronto Arts Council is doing to strengthen the city through the arts.
